Dear Deborah,

RE: CHINA OPPORTUNITIES

Thanks for speaking with me on Wednesday morning.

I am a Sydney Solicitor who is a former Member of the NSW Equal Opportunity Tribunal.

Through past client associations, involving rural property acquisitions in Australia, I have forged a joint venture with Newwork International Limited, a Beijing-based group which negotiates venture capital in both the public and private sectors, from Chinese investors, for foreign intellectual property.

Our particular interest is in acquiring equity in low-carbon, alternate energy technology and products and also, to promoting projects which involve intensive land use, water conservation and seed propagation in China.

Naturally, the Chinese market would be opened up to successful applicants, whom we represent.
